Green Bay, June 19th, 1254.

By many inquirics I have learned some of the reasons why the world of immigration has not long ago found this country out, and made its abordant resources available. Before proceeding to a brief mention of them, however, let me endeavor so give our readers some idea of this city (no longer a "borough") and its adjoinings and surroundings.

At the heart of the Bay, a deep channel unites its waters with those of the Neepah, which latter from its mouth to Depere seems to be very much like an extension of, or cetuary making up from the hay, giving deep water and abundant they are about, and have a much bester right to width for the working of sail-traft. The low speak in the matter than the Madison Democrat. ridge of land which borders the castern side turns off castward above the city, leaving an extensive plates, elevated above the water. So, too, on the west side, the land lies well situated for busince. Coming down the river, we first reach Navariate, a settlement containing its stores and warehouses, of some comparative antiquity.-Next, on the other side (East), we reach Astorid, the ancient site of the Fur Company's warehouses, showing a good many old buildings (and rery good ones too) maccopied, or not occupied for the purposes for which they were erected .-Here, on board the schooner Congress, I found Mr. Rebinson, late decretary of State, and proprietor of the Advocate, tallying lumber which was going on board for Milwankee. He is concerned in the lumber trade, being part weer of a steam Now mill across the river. His brother and partner, and Mr. Ballou, the local editor, I found at the office. Nami below Asteria, and connected with it and arresting down to the lake, lies Green Bay proper, much the largest of the various settlements. On the opposite side, the stockade for and white bareacks called Fort Howard, occupy the corresponding site to that of Green Bay, and the settlement (called Howard ) has within three or four years grown much more rapidly than Green Bay, and is now quite a thriving village. It would seem that several enterprising men live and own property on the west side, and are inchied to do something towards improvement and progress. Mr Otto Tauk, who is reputed to be a man of vast wealth, a good part of which is yet successful. in the old country, but who has invested large Amounts in this region, and in railroad stock, lives . Howard.

The Fox River Improvement Co. has located ats warehouses and is building several freight heats on the west side, south of Howard. It would seem to a casual observer that it would have been wise to include all these various settlements under one corporation when Green Bay | scriptions are those furnished to the New York aid aside its horoughhood and put on the airs of Courier & Enquirer by its old and well known very, but doubtless those who prepared the correspondent "Sentinel," From his last letter, charter knew what they where about. Scarcely summing up the incidents of the journey, we copy the following paragraph:

Creen Buy is waiting for a good time coming, with abundant, unwavering faith in the future dispensations of Providence. Why does it well so long? Let mo try to tell you. Green Bay has a capital hurhor, with safe entranco and deep water inside. The location of the place is such as to render it very easy to build a town; nature, or the Indians, or half-breads, having long ago cleared the level land on which it clands. The country along the Neenah riverand for many miles back, is very fine for agricultural purposes, and where it is not such, pine is abundant. The water-power is inexhaustible all along the Neenah, the several rapids in the forty unles between here and lake Winnebago tringing down the water something like 80 feet as I understood. The lands along this great screen are, in fact, as handsome as any that lie open to the sun, or sleep in the shade of great forests. Why, then, does Green Bay wait so long for its prosperity? Among the reasons given ate these which follow.

The old American For Company owned, and still own a large property here, now of no use to its surviving members, and W. B. Aster seems 5. have determined that by no countenance from him shall any improvement be made, or his own property advanced an iota in value. He will not improve, and will not sell. Then there is at heat one who has, and there are perhaps more. who have been here for many years, holding on to their old real property with the grasp of death, and constantly purchasing more, though the tuxes are making them poor; yet they will neither sell, nor improve. Again, much of the land along the ther is held by Eastern speculators, who purchand in 1836 or '37, and who, buying at extravegreet prices, refuse to sell unless at at least the same prices, with the taxes added. And again, many of the French Canadians and halfbreeds own small tracts, or "claims," parrow on the river, and running back for a mile or two. They like too well to live an easy, jolly, lazy hie, to put themselves so far out of the way as to cultivate more than a garden patch, and they will hand was entered by officers of the garrison, who and dend or alsent, or by their heirs, and here, too, there is neither tale or improvement.

Here are reasons enough why the old town of for the new steamboat Metropolis, designed to run Green Ber, with all its facilities for business, does on Long Island Sound. The cylinder is 105. a. link,-why the splendid lands along the Neegab were not years since converted toto smiling farm-why the water-powers which the river was driven through it without difficulty, and one gives are not employed in grinding good wheat hundred and one men stood up in it, without late choice flour for the eastern market-why crowding. the bread mesdows and terraces are not covered with lowing herds of cattle (there is no boof here. and people are starving upon venison and pigcon-!),-and why the deep and broad Neenah' sorters is not whitened by the sails, or ploughed by the busy wheels of commerce. but things are growing better. The Improve ment Co. hope to get their locks ready for the navigation to open through to Lake Winnebago late this fall, or, at all-events, early in the spring following, and business will astonish the natives time. Property long hourded and "tied up":--to use an expressive term, is passing into better bat-la. Much of the land back two or three miles from different correspondents, of a large assortfrom the river between here and Appleton is here ment of "foolscap," in review of Judge Sarra's ing taken up by settlers, and a part of that along | decision, and is somewhat puzzled what to do with the stream, begins to show signs of cultivation, them. He has a busy saw mill at the dam. and there are several others near by, while the town itself looks more thriving from the street than from the river, and, being accessible to the largest vessels, must work its way up to great prosperity.

The day has leen intensely hot in the sun though a pleasant breeze has cooled the brows of azy people in the shade. To-night there is a thep' at the Aster House—the other hotel, and said to be a very good one-and ta-merrow we start up the Neenahagain. You may hear from

The Business Men of Milwaukee.

The Madison Democrat understands that "the Business Men of Milwaukee have been signing patitions for the retention of Josian A. Nuonan as Post Master of that city," and proceeds to ecture them roundly for so doing. We take it that the Business Men of Milwaukee know what speak in the matter than the Madison Democrat. it is, we believe, quite true that they have very generally signed a letter, addressed to our Sena tors and Representatives, expressing their confidence in Mr. Noonan's official capacity and integrity, and their desire that he may be retained in an office which he has filled to their satisfaction. They are not unreasonable, we think, in the belief that such a representation will have at east as much weight with the Administration as the vague and violent denunciations of personal chemics and "non-residents." The Democrat, in the same connection, invites the Business Men of Milwaukee "to pay the liabilities incurred by Nuonan and his associates in their labors to defeat the R. R. U. V. grant." If the Democrat will specify any such " liabilities," we undertake to say that they will be promptly settled without the aid of the "Business Men. of Milwaukee." The instances which it cites are purely apocryphal. "The man who forged the manifesto of the Wall street brokers," is a creature of Monks' Hall invention, and as to the "honest artist who engraved and printed" the map, showing the different rail-roads with which the Valley Company come in competition-u map prepared at the suggestion of leading members of Congress-provision was made for his payment before Mr. Noonan left Washington The only "bired bandlits, suffering for whiskey and other sustenance promised them for their services," that we have heard of, were the Lobby Agents of the Valley Road Company. ## The Palm of Beauty

Among the recent excursionists to St. Paul, by the Rock Island Rail Road and the Mississippi River, were a great many editors from the East and South, whose animated and olequeut descripions of the journey now fill column after column of our exchanges. Among the best of these decopy the following paragraph:

PRAIRIE DE CHEEN, in Crawford County, Wisconsin, is the terminus of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Rail Road. It is richly entitled to the handsome compliment paid by the editors of think how unhappy it makes us Whige to see the New York Courier & Enquirer and of the this "Kilkenny cat" fight going on in the Dem-Cincinnati Gazette. The site is unrivalled on the whole line of the Mississippi, and all that is wanting to improve the natural advantages of that site to the utmost is the completion of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad.

The largest and most expensive half of the road e finished. Its business and carnings surposs the expectations of the most sauguine among its. projectors. But, large as they are, they would be vally increased by the extension of the road to the Great River. Our city, too, would profit in proportion by the completion of the enterprize-There are obvious, manifold and pressing reasons why no time should be lost and no efforts spaced in urging forward the work.

No RESPECTABLE DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN MIL. VAUNER -- We lament to hear, from that exceedingly respectable organ of the party, the Madison Democrat, that there is no respectable Democratic paper in the city of Milwankee. There are no ese than five Daily papers (English and German) published in this city, which profess various sorts of Democracy, but not one of them comes up, both as to respectability and democracy, to the Madison standard. It is in noticing and complimenting the appearance of the Wisconsin in its new dress that the Mudison Democrat improves the occasion to say:

This paper (the Wisconsia) is in a highly prosperous condition; and although we can hardly recognize it as a thoroughly democratic paper, it can but receive the support of the party in the absence of any other respectable paper having any claims upon the party in that city.

The evidence showed that the defendant was drunk, and had placed chips &c., under the dwelling of the complainant, threatening to burn it. The woman was only liberated from fail last Saturday. The court required her to give bail in the sum of $100, in default she was committed. She left the court aweating rengeance agaist the complainant.

FINE FLOWERS .- We saw, yesterday, a number of handsome boupuets, from the gardon of Mr. Charles James, of Wauwatosa, consisting of Roses of all colors, Pinks, Carnations, &c. We understand that Mr. James has one of the best flower gardens in the State, and is in the habit of bringing in dushels of flowers every marning for his friends,

The propoller Sun will leave for Buffalo is morning at 9 o'clock colling at all the intermediate ports. For passage, &c. apply to Hard & Oriffen agents opposite the Milwaukee House.

"ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURES."—We take great pleasure in calling attention to the adverisoment of the "Wisconsin Car Company," in this morning's paper. With the Menomones Locomotive Manufactory to make engines, and the Wisconsin Car Company to build care, there is little need of our Rail Rond Companies sending East for their equipage. When the Mannfacturing Company at Iron Ridge gets fairly under way, there will be still less necessity of sending to England for our iron rails. It will be a good time for Wisconsin when our Lecomotives, Cars and Rails can be made at home.

Cara from the City Physicians. For the Daily Sentine).

MESSES. EDITORS :- This marning's Sentinel brings an article devoted to the health of this city, in which the assertion is made that numbers of emigrants flock hither, being as yel uninspected. Why your correspondent has put these words in italies, we cannot comprehend, but he must have had some design in doing it; if he had not, let him explain it. He cannot be ignorant of the appointment of City Physicians, for this fact has been published in all the city papers. We suppose he reads the papers. But perhaps he ignotant of our doings under our appointment, and for his benefit and for purposes of information generally, we will here state that we have inspected every steamboat and other vessel, even the United States war steamer Michigan, which has brought emigrants and other passengers to our port, and every passenger thereon. We have furthermore inspected every emigrant house, tavero, de, and many private dwellings, where we suspected contagious diseases; we have so far done everything which we could do, and which was directed by the Board of Henlih to bedone. We cannot see any reason why your correspondent should make any such assertion, except his ignorance. And we will add further, that we intend to act out our full duty. We remain, very respectfully, yours,

Dr. E. B. WOLCOTT. City Physician. Dr. EDWARD WUNDSOH, Assistant.
